

Saturday 24th March 2012

British Sprint Orienteering Championships - Nominated World Ranking Event: University of York, Walmgate Stray and Heslington

The British Sprint Championships for 2012 will be based at York University and in addition to the campus itself adjacent areas will be used to provide an exciting mix of different types of terrain. Assembly will be at the University Sports Centre with toilets and showers provided.

Sunday 25th March 2012

British Middle Distance Orienteering Championships: Strensall Common, near York

The 2012 British Middle Distance Championships will be held on Strensall Common an interesting area of natural heathland and fast runnable woodland used mainly as an army training area. The land whilst predominantly flat contains a wealth of interesting small contour and scattered water features

More details and entries available from autumn 2011

CONTACT DETAILS

Website: www.york2012orienteering.org.uk (coming soon)

E-mail: york2012@btinternet.com

Phone: +44(0)1904 761120

